Britta. This story takes place at the Denman Family's Morgan Horse Farm on the McMinn-Polk County border, in Delano.

The photographer for the story book was Elizabeth L.D. McGee, Images N Memories Photography. McGee, a professional photographer, focuses on animal studies, candid and scenic photography.

The Shops At Morgan Lane will host a book signing event with Denman on the Friday and Saturday after Thanksgiving, Nov. 28 and 29. Signings will be held from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. The Shops are located on Sleipnir Morgan Horse Farm, at 2214 Columbus Road (McMinn County Road 969), off the Bowater Road (Highway 163). Turn at the white sign with red letters on either McMinn County Road 969 or 970.

These two days will be the only time that Denman will be in East Tennessee for an autograph session prior to Christmas.

Denman will have autographed copies available in the Shop after this time. Other San memorabilia will also be offered for sale exclusively at The Shops. Weather permitting, San's family will also give tours of the site of San's adventures. It will be possible to meet most of the characters in San's adventure book while on the Farm. Other characters from future books will also be available.

San will be staying in Vermont over the holiday, working on his further adventures.

For more information, call 263-0824 or visit San's Web site at www.santhedog.com or The Shops' Web site at www.TheShopsAtMorganLane.com

Sleipnir Morgan Horse Farm is the publisher of the book.

A portion of the proceeds from the sale of the book will support various charities, including Medica XXI, a non-governmental, not-for-profit charity co-founded by Denman, and several humane and educational charities focusing on animals, in particular, aged, retired Morgan horses.
